7.1.1.1. Digital files in .MOV (1920 x 1080 px, Full Raster), with Codec in ProRes, DNxHD.

7.1.1.2. The FIFA does not accept any physical support (hard drive, DVD, Blu-ray, etc.).

7.1.1.3. A DCP could be requested, depending on the venue where the film or video will be screened.

7.1.1.4. Exceptions can be made according to the needs of interactive and/or immersive works.

7.1.2. Audio standards:

7.1.2.1. A sound mix in stereo LTRT is required.

7.1.2.2. All channels must be clearly indicated. Please privilege channels 1/2 (Dolby Surround and Pro Logic accepted).

7.1.2.3. Exceptions can be made according to the needs of interactive and/or immersive works.

7.1.2.4. The FIFA will not do any sound mixing.

7.1.3. Encoding:

7.1.3.1. For the purposes of promotion, broadcasting and archiving (see clause 10.1.), encrypted supports and files will not be accepted.

7.1.4. Download:

7.1.4.1. The transmission of the digital file must be made only by download (in accordance with FIFA standards).

7.1.4.2. Files of inadequate quality may be rejected.

7.1.4.3. In the event that the required format is not available, please contact us at technique@lefifa.com.

7.1.4.4. The costs of any technical and/or handling fee shall be borne by the applicant.

7.2. A trailer and/or excerpt from the film, video or work, not exceeding three minutes, should be sent, under the same conditions for promotional purposes (does not apply for music videos).

7.3. In the event that the FIFA does not receive the projection material within the deadline, the FIFA reserves the right to screen in its venues the pre-selection copy of the film or video submitted at the time of registration.

7.4. If a screening copy is in a language other than French or English, a subtitled or dubbed version in French or English is required. Subtitles must respect safe zone standards.

7.5. Screening copies that include commercial breaks or any form of publicity will not be accepted.

7.6. The FIFA reserves the right to ask for a new screening copy in the event that the above standards are not respected.

7.7. In the event that, with the agreement of the FIFA, the transmission of films and videos is made by other means than by the one authorized (see section 7.1.4):

7.7.1. Please contact us at technique@lefifa.com to arrange the shipping of a hard drive or a DCP (no other support are accepted).

7.7.2. The costs of sending and forwarding and the customs clearance, in both directions, as well as any technical and/or handling fee, shall be borne by the applicant.

7.7.3. Films, videos or works accepted by the Festival must be sent PREPAID and received by January 31, 2022 at the following address:

7.7.4. Applicants can send a courier service to pick up the physical support (hard drive) at its own expense as of April 2022, with the agreement of the FIFA.

7.7.5. The FIFA shall assume no responsibility for loss or damage of any copy on a physical support.

7.8. If a master copy of the film or video is sent, the FIFA shall assume no responsibility for loss or damage to this original copy.

7.9. The FIFA reserves the right to withdraw from the program any film or video whose final screening copy does not meet the Festival's criteria, or that was not received by January 31, 2022.

8. VIDEOTHEQUE

8.1. There will be an online videotheque containing all of the films of the 40th FIFA edition for promotional purposes.

8.2. The videotheque is accessible only to the accredited professionals and members of the press from March 1 to April 10, 2022.

8.3. By submitting a registration file, the applicant authorizes the FIFA to stream the film or video on the online videotheque.

8.4. Experimental, interactive and immersive works will not be a part of the videotheque.

9. COMPETITION

9.1. Jury members may not be associated in any way with a film or video presented in competition.

9.2. No contact between contestants or their intermediaries and jury members is permitted during the Festival.

9.3. The jury has the power to grant special awards.

9.4. The decisions of the jury are final and irrevocable.

9.5. With respect to promotion and publicity, prizewinners in all categories shall use the name and/or logo of the International Festival of Films on Art (FIFA), Montréal and to mention the prize obtained in accordance with the FIFA guidelines regarding the use of its name and logo.

9.6. The prizewinner films may have an additional screening at the end of the Festival.

10. USAGE RIGHTS

10.1. By submitting a registration file, the applicant authorizes the FIFA:

10.1.1. PROMOTION

10.1.1.1. to distribute and present trailers and excerpts from the submitted films, videos or works, not exceeding three minutes via various media (television, radio, Internet), on the FIFA website, and any other presentation site, for the purpose of promoting FIFA, its Festival and activities, or the film, video, or work.

10.1.1.2. to use, reproduce, distribute or present the photographs, texts, promotional material and other documents submitted, for the purpose of promoting FIFA, its Festival and activities, or the film, video, or work.

10.1.1.3. to reproduce or make available to film industry professionals and media any materials provided to FIFA by the applicant, including the film, video, or work, or the trailer or other audiovisual documents, for the purpose of promoting FIFA, its Festival and activities, or the film, video, or work.

10.1.1.4. to make the films or videos submitted available to stream on the online videotheque (see section 8) to film and media professionals, for promotional purposes.

10.1.2. PRESENTATION

10.1.2.1. to publicly present all selected films or videos within the context and duration of the Festival for one screening or more in physical or virtual venues;

10.1.2.2. to publicly present the selected films, videos and works, whether prizewinning or not, at various educational or cultural sites in Canada and abroad, as part of FIFA's off-festival activities, according to a screening agreement previously established between the FIFA and the rights holders.

10.1.3. CONSERVATION AND ARCHIVES

10.1.3.1. to reproduce the film or video submitted for purposes of conservation, archiving, consultation and research. The applicant acknowledges that this authorization is not time limited.

10.2. The FIFA shall be exempt from all distribution and screening fees with regard to the films, videos and works presented physically or virtually during the 40th Festival.

10.3. By submitting a registration file, the applicant attests and guarantees that they possess all the necessary rights and authorizations, including the usage rights stipulated in the present clause.

10.4. By submitting a registration file, the applicant attests and guarantees that the film, video or work and documents submitted are original works and in no way contravene any third-party rights or are the subject of litigation, either ongoing or anticipated. The applicant pledges to vigorously defend FIFA in the event of any complaint from a third party with respect to the film, video, work or documents submitted to FIFA.

11. MODIFICATION, CANCELLATION

11.1. The FIFA reserves the right to shorten, postpone, interrupt or cancel the Festival, the Tour, and any other off-festival activities, or to modify their content should exceptional circumstances or circumstances beyond its control require it, or to ensure the safety, fairness or integrity of the Festival and the Tour. It shall thus bear no responsibility in these incidences.

11.2. No compensation of any kind whatsoever shall be granted to participants and rights holders.

12. GENERAL PROVISIONS

12.1. By registering a film, a video or a work, applicants agree to the present Regulations.

12.2. The management of FIFA reserves the right to adjudicate all cases not covered by the present Regulations.

12.3. All legal disputes, differences or controversies regarding the application or interpretation of the present Regulations shall be governed by the applicable laws of Quebec and/or Canada, and fall under the exclusive jurisdiction of the Quebec courts sitting in the judicial district of Montreal.
